Inc. magazine includes full-service community bank with offices in Philadelphia & Atlanta on its 2025 'fastest-growing' list, noting three-year growth of 129 percent

Philadelphia, Aug. 13, 2025 – Hyperion Bank, a full-service community bank with offices in Philadelphia and Atlanta, is included on Inc. magazine's 2025 Inc. 5000 list, recognizing the nation's fastest-growing private companies. This is 18-year-old Hyperion's second year on the list, ranking 3127, based on percentage revenue growth, 2021-2024, of 129%.

"Our customers, business partners and team members make this growth and success possible," says community banking veteran Charlie Crawford, Hyperion CEO & Chair. "While I'm certainly proud of the recognition for our growth, what matters most is that we achieved it without losing sight of what sets us apart: connecting customers with knowledgeable, approachable bankers who are empowered to make local decisions. Growth is a milestone, but it's our team's dedication to personalized service that made it possible."

Of organizations making up the 2025 Inc. 5000, Hyperion Bank appears among 82 organizations in the PA-NJ-DE-MD area, among 202 Financial Services organizations on the list and among 91 Pennsylvania companies. On last year's (2024) Inc. 5000 list, Hyperion ranked 3835, based on percentage revenue growth over three years of 120%.

"Making the Inc. 5000 is always a remarkable achievement, but earning a spot this year speaks volumes about a company's tenacity and clarity of vision," says Mike Hofman, Inc. editor-in-chief. "These businesses have thrived amid rising costs, shifting global dynamics and constant change."

Among the top 500 companies on the list, the median three-year revenue growth rate reached 1,552 percent, and those companies have collectively added more than 48,678 jobs to the U.S. economy over three years.
